

Farnham to Godalming walk

A long but pretty walk with gentle hills via a nice mixture of river valley, forest tracks, and many beautiful country houses.

River Wey, Waverley Abbey & Peper Harrow Park

Length 20.6km (12.8 miles), 6 hours. For the whole outing, including trains, sights and meals, allow at least 9 hours.

Toughness 6 out of 10.

OS Maps Explorer 145 or Landranger 186. Farnham, map reference SU 846 455, is in Surrey, 15km west of Guildford.

Features This walk starts and ends along the River Wey. It follows the start of the North Downs Way through a narrow forested valley. It passes close to the ruins of Waverley Abbey (English Heritage), and goes through woods to The Donkey, the suggested walker friendly lunchtime pub in Charleshill (booking advised).

After lunch, there are further sandy bridleways through woods before entering the open parklands of the Peper Harrow estate which has its own church and cricket pitch.

Then along a narrow wooded valley beside the River Wey to tea in Godalming's ancient centre.

Walk Options There are no longer buses from Tilford but you could get a taxi from the lunch pub to Farnham or Godalming.

History The town of Farnham (the name derives from the Saxon for 'ferny water meadows') prospered through trade in corn, wheat and hops. Its Norman castle was built by Henri de Blois, a grandson of William the Conqueror.

Moor Park House is the site of the 1897 Moor Park Riot where a crowd successfully forced open the gates to maintain the right of way against the intention of the owner, Sir William Rose. During World War II Moor Park was part of the General Headquarters Line of defence built against an expected German invasion; remains such as pillboxes and gun emplacements can still be seen in the Park and surrounding area.

The twelfth-century Waverley Abbey (english-heritage.org.uk/visit/places/waverley-abbey/) – now in ruins – was the first Cistercian monastery to be built in England.

The Peper Harrow Church of St Nicholas is a Norman building restored by Pugin, the Victorian architect. It contains a memorial to Vice Admiral Thomas Brodrick; he helped to court-martial Admiral Byng, who in 1757 was shot on the quarterdeck of his own ship as a scapegoat for the navy's failure to save a besieged garrison on Minorca or, as Voltaire put it, 'pour encourager les autres'. The church can only be visited by arrangement a week in advance (phone the warden on 01483 810 526) .

Godalming is thought to mean 'field (-ing) of Godhelm' (the putative first Saxon to claim the land). It was a coaching town between London and Portsmouth, and a centre of trade in wool, stone-quarrying, timber, leather, paper, corn and brewing. The High Street has many half-timbered buildings.

Travel Take the train nearest to 9.30am from Waterloo Station to Farnham (perhaps changing at Woking). Journey time about one hour. There are trains back from Godalming every half hour (hourly on Sundays). Journey time 50 minutes.

Buy a day return to Farnham. For the return journey you will need to buy a single from Godalming to Woking.

By Car : Train is easier for this one. Change at Guildford or Woking to return to your car. You can park for free near Farnham railway station at weekends.

Lunch

The first pub you pass is the Barley Mow pub (tel 01252 792 205) in Tilford, which is by the green, with a riverside garden. It serves food midday to 2pm daily; groups of more than 12 people should book.

The suggested lunch place, 2.75km (50 minutes) later, is The Donkey (tel 01252 702 124), a walker friendly pub in Charles Hill, some 9 km into the walk, which serves gourmet food, midday to 2.30pm daily; booking is recommended for indoor seating.

Tea

For a very late lunch, or an earlier tea stop for a stronger drink or light refreshments, try the Stag on the River pub in Eashing (tel 01483 421568) which as its name implies enjoys a pleasant mill-stream, riverside setting.

The suggested tea stop in Godalming is the Cafe Mila (tel 01483 808569) in Angel Court, just off the High Street, which is open until 5pm Monday to Saturday and 4pm on Sunday. The ground floor is the family area and upstairs reserved for adults. Other tea options include the usual suspects such as Caffè Nero and Costa Coffee.

Another good tea stop is Changing Perceptions Community Cafe and Workshop (tel 01483 420436) at 133A High Street. Open until 5pm Monday to Friday, to 4.30pm Saturday, closed Sundays. This community project offers training and employment opportunities for those with disabilities. Its cakes in the cafe section are reported to be delicious.

Updates

No major changes. New tea stop added May 2018.

Walk Directions

1. [1] Coming off platform 2 at Farnham Station, with the Waverley Arms on your right-hand side, cross over the railway lines, your direction 330°. In 20 metres you pass a petrol station on your right and head down Station Hill.
2. In 100 metres you reach the A31 dual carriageway. Turn right here, your direction 250°, and, in 150 metres, fork right on a track signposted the North Downs Way. In 220 metres you come to a minor road. Turn right here and follow the road round to the left. There is a BP garage on your left with an M&S shop where you can buy a sandwich or bottled water.
3. In 350 metres you are beside the River Wey (on your left-hand side). In a further 200 metres, you pass the entrance drive to Snayleslynch Farm on your right.
4. In 100 metres, at the entrance of a house called The Kiln, go sharp right, following the North Downs Way, your direction 120°. In 35 metres you go under the railway line. In a further 85 metres, ignore a footpath signposted to the right to go straight on with open fields on your left-hand side.
5. In a further 220 metres, at a path T-junction, follow the North Downs Way footpath sign to the left, your direction 60°.
6. In 65 metres ignore the wooden kissing gate to your right (although do observe the carved wooden bench seat just beyond it), to go straight on. In 60 metres you cross the river on a wooden bridge with railings. Continue ahead and in a further 140 metres go through the gateway of High Mill (marked 'Private'), following the white-painted arrow. In 25 metres go over a small stream. In another 30 metres, you exit the property. In a further 65 metres, at a T-junction, go right on a bridleway, heading due east.
7. In 180 metres ignore the tarmac road beyond barriers uphill to your left and in a further 20 metres go around the metal field gate otherwise blocking your way. Now follow the lane half right your direction 150° and in 200 metres you pass Swifts Cottage and Temple Cottage on your left-hand side. In a further 220 metres ignore a tarmac lane going uphill on your left. In 160 metres [2] cross a tarmac road to go through the metal kissing gate to the left of the entrance gateway to Moor Park House your direction 135°.
8. In 50 metres notice the ornate gatehouse to Moor Park House on your right but keep straight on; you are now on the Moor Park Heritage Trail. In 600 metres you pass a WW2 pillbox on your right-hand side and in a further 100 metres you pass another pillbox with a noticeboard about Moor Park in World War II. In 450 metres you pass Mother Ludlam's Cave on your left. In 85 metres go through a metal kissing gate. In 40 metres you pass Stella Lodge on your left-hand side to come out on to Camp Hill road [3].
9. Go right on this road downhill for 20 metres, then left on the road, signposted to Godalming, your direction 145°. In 185 metres, as the road swings to the left, take a public byway on your right, your direction 185°.
10. In 200 metres, in winter, you can see Waverley Abbey House away on your right-hand side and the ruins of Waverley Abbey, due west (300 metres to the left of the house).
11. If you would like to detour for a closer view of the abbey, in 110 metres take a path down to your right between yew trees and rhododendrons; in 150 metres, you are beside the River Wey, with the abbey ruins opposite to the left.
12. Continue on the main path, gently uphill. [!] In 115 metres, where the path starts to descend and there is a metal gate on the left go sharp right up the hill following a public byway sign, your direction 230°.
13. In 370 metres you cross a tarmac road (with a brick post box opposite) to continue on a gravel road with a public byway sign, your direction 230°.
14. In 40 metres fork left following a red arrow, your direction 190°. In 10 metres you pass Sheephatch Farm (marked on the OS map) on your left. Keep to this path, ignoring ways off. In 450 metres you pass the entrance drive to Tilhill House on your left-hand side, to continue straight ahead, now on a tarmac lane.
15. In 130 metres, just before the entrance to Wey Cottage, fork right off this lane on a signposted public bridleway, your direction 170°. In 20 metres ignore a stile on your left-hand side. You are back near the River Wey on your right. In a further 185 metres, ignore a path going up to the left.
16. In 285 metres you come to the main road, with Tilford Village Shop where you can buy hot drinks and sandwiches on your left-hand side. (If you want a meal now, turn right, over the bridge, to the Barley Mow pub, Tilford, on your right-hand side.)
17. The main route is to go left, your direction 45°, passing the Village Shop on your left-. In a further 210 metres, ignore Whitmead Lane to the right. In 75 metres, as the road bends left, cross over to take the tarmac lane to your right, your direction 125°, passing a house on your left.
18. [4] In 75 metres take the public footpath signposted left (a tarmac road), your direction 60°.
19. In 150 metres, at the end of this driveway, by the entrance to Archers Hill house, fork right on a public footpath, following a yellow arrow.

21. In 240 metres, by the entrance drive to Whitmead House, fork left on a vehicle-wide byway, your direction 95°, with a timber-framed lodge house on your right-hand side.
22. In 950 metres you pass the entrance to West Wey House on your right-hand side. In 80 metres, at a crossing of lanes, fork right, downhill, your direction 95°. In 30 metres you pass the entrance to Riversleigh Farm on your right. In a further 55 metres, you come to the suggested lunchtime stop, The Donkey pub in Charleshill, on your right.
23. Coming out of the pub after lunch, turn right. In 55 metres you reach the main road. Cross this and take the public bridleway signposted tarmac lane straight on (the entrance to Foxhill is on your right-hand side), your direction being 345°.
24. In 35 metres turn right, following the bridleway sign, to go uphill, your direction 65°. In a further 215 metres, your way becomes a tarmac drive. In 210 metres you pass black iron gates on your right-hand side, to fork left, your direction 60°, on a tarmac way. There is a low column with an entry phone on your left-hand side.
25. [5] In 80 metres you exit through the Three Barrows gateway to cross the tarmac road and go straight on, your direction 70°, along a signposted public bridleway, ignoring field gates off to the left and right-hand sides.
26. In 800 metres, by the entrance drive to Fullbrook Farm, you come out on to a tarmac road and cross it to continue straight on towards Broomfield Cottage (private), your direction due east.
27. [6] In 170 metres, by a turning circle or parking area on your right-hand side, go through a swing gate on your left, following a wooden public bridleway sign, and then go half right, diagonally across the field. In 25 metres you pass the first oak tree, on your left-hand side, your direction 60°, and keep going in this direction, ignoring all ways off. Aim for 30 metres to the left of the right-hand corner of the wood, some 400 metres ahead of you.
28. Enter the wood by a wooden swing gate, and continue on, your direction 65°, along a potentially muddy way. In 60 metres cross a stream on a bridge with wooden railings. In a further 170 metres, you come to a tarmac road by a bridleway sign where you turn right, your direction 110°.
29. In 60 metres go over a stream. In a further 30 metres, by a footpath sign opposite Brookside House, turn left, your direction 20°.
30. In 190 metres you come to a tarmac road T-junction where you go left, with Kingshott Cottage on your left-hand side, your direction 55°. In 45 metres follow the blue arrow straight on, ignoring a fork left to Broad Firs. In a further 220 metres, ignore a way off to the right (with a field gate also on your right-hand side). In 200 metres ignore ways off to the right and left. In 150 metres ignore a post with a blue arrow to the left (indicating a bridleway) to follow the blue arrow straight on. In 30 metres ignore a way to the right.
31. [!] In 275 metres [7], 5 metres before a post with red arrows to the left and ahead, go right on an unmarked path, gently downhill, your direction 190°.
32. In 60 metres fork left. In 260 metres you come out on to a tarmac road where you go right, your direction 215°. In 40 metres you pass the entrance to Prospect House.
33. In a further 55 metres, go left on a sandy road, signposted public bridleway, your direction due south.
34. In a further 240 metres, ignore a path to the left. In 65 metres cross a stream.
35. In a further 70 metres, at a T-junction, with a cottage on your right-hand side and a wooden field gate ahead, go left, your direction 80°.
36. In 240 metres go straight on where an unmarked track crosses. In 85 metres, within 20 metres of the end of the wood, at a junction, keep ahead (slightly right), your direction 125°, with the edge of the wood on your right-hand side.
37. Keep to this main path, ignoring all ways off. In 360 metres you come to a tarmac road where you turn right, your direction 195°.
38. In 45 metres you pass Headlands House on your right-hand side. In a further 240 metres, you come to the main tarmac road.
39. Turn right and, in 40 metres [8], turn left off the road, following the public footpath sign down the tarmac road into the Peper Harrow estate (which is marked on the OS map).
40. In 160 metres ignore a kissing gate and signposted path to the right. In 30 metres, ignore a fork to the right by a post box. After walking a further 200 metres, you come to the (locked) Church of St Nicholas Peper Harrow.
41. In 30 metres take the stile (with a metal field gate to its left) signposted public footpath, going to your left, heading due east. In 30 metres you pass close to a wooden farm shed on your left-hand side and head to the left of the dark green coloured pavilion ahead, with no clear path.

42. In 135 metres you pass the pavilion on your right-hand side and keep parallel and to the left of the mini-pylons. Enter the wood, some 30 metres to the left of its right-hand edge, going over a stile.
43. [9] In 40 metres, at the other end of the wood, at a T-junction, ignore a foot-path straight on and turn right, in 8 metres going through a small metal swing gate with a bridleway sign where you go left, with the field fence on your left-hand side, your direction 70°.
44. In 150 metres veer right with the bridleway, a field fence still to your left.
45. In 235 metres go through a metal field gate to cross the A3 on a bridge. On the other side, go right downhill towards a petrol station. In 80 metres turn left on Lower Eashing Road, your direction 120°.
46. In 40 metres turn left between Greenways and Lower Eashing Farm Cottage on a tarmac road, which is a signposted public bridleway, your direction 40°. However, if you wish to take refreshments at the Stag on the River pub in Lower Eashing, keep ahead on Lower Eashing Road, to cross the traffic light controlled single carriageway bridge over the River Wey in 200 metres. On its far side, swing right with the road and you come to the Stag on the River pub in 100 metres on your right hand side. Retrace your steps afterwards to the left turn between Greenways and Lower Eashing Farm Cottage.
47. In 40 metres this tarmac road becomes a concrete road, passing Greenways Farm and Stable on your right-hand side. In 120 metres, with a pillbox down on your right, ignore a path off uphill to your left. In 75 metres, you pass under pylons.
48. In a further 110 metres, where the concrete road turns left, go straight ahead through a wooden field gate on a car-wide earth bridleway, your direction 55°, in 10 metres passing a pillbox on your left.
49. In 230 metres go under pylons (a potentially muddy area). In 110 metres you pass under two lots of pylon cables. In 245 metres ignore a path to the left, marked by a post.
50. [10] In 30 metres you reach a T-junction, with a garden wall ahead. Here turn right, following a public footpath sign, your direction 145°.
51. In 80 metres go past the entrance to a house called Milton Wood (on your right). In 150 metres go through a metal barrier, now back alongside the River Wey which is below to your right.
52. In 500 metres go through another metal barrier. In 40 metres, [11], 1 metre before the start of a tarmac road, follow the public footpath signpost right, your direction due south.
53. In 75 metres go over a concrete bridge and straight on. In 10 metres ignore a footpath to the left and another 10 metres you turn left under the pylons, your direction 140°, with the River Wey on your right-hand side.
54. In 30 metres you pass under more pylons and fork left, your direction 170°.
55. In 40 metres continue to the left, your direction 100°, alongside the River Wey on your right-hand side.
56. In 120 metres you go under pylons and again in 55 metres.
57. In a further 120 metres, your way merges with a tarmac path coming from the left and you continue ahead. In 150 metres cross the stream on a bridge. In a further 280 metres, cross a bridge with scaffolding pole railings. In 5 metres go through a metal barrier, across an entrance drive and straight on, passing offices on your right-hand side, with the stream still on your left.
58. In 65 metres, at a tarmac road, go right, your direction 170°.
59. In 20 metres go under the railway line. 10 metres after the bridge, fork right on a signposted public footpath. In 110 metres, having kept parallel to the road, cross the river on a wooden bridge with wooden railings.
60. In 35 metres you are back on the main Borough Road, and go straight on, in 65 metres reaching the entrance to the Church of St Peter and St Paul.
61. If you want to go straight to the station without tea, turn right here down Deanery Place but instead of following Station Road, take the passageway straight ahead which takes you to the station.
62. For tea go left up Church Street, which is a car road made of bricks, your direction 125°. Going uphill, in 130 metres you come to the High Street, Godalming. Your suggested tea stop, Cafe Mila is in Angel Court, just off the High Street. The chain coffee shops are also on the High Street.
63. After tea, retrace your steps to the church. Go back down the High Street and at the Old Town Hall, turn right down Church Lane. When you reach the church go straight on to pick up the passageway ahead leading to the station.
64. At Godalming Station, go over the new pedestrian bridge for the London-bound platform.
